Are you an SGS Member? ____ Yes ____ No

We provide research services for SGS members and non-members. Our researchers will make every effort to find information for you; however, we cannot guarantee success.

Obituaries

We will search a 10-14 day period following date of death to lookup an obituary in Seattle's newspapers. The fee is $7.50 per name for non-members.

Other Research

Lookups in resources listed in our Library Catalog (including City Directories) as well as Seattle Public Library. The fee for non-members is $10.00 per hour per name, minimum of $7.50. If our research is expected to exceed one hour, our researcher will contact you with an estimate of the additional time it will take to complete the research before proceeding. Please be specific about who we should research, with dates and places for the relevant events. Include the specific resources you would like us to check.
